PLEASE HELP!

THE BUAV ANIMAL AID has during the past year given sanctuary and found new homes for approximately 2,000 unwanted cats and dogs which otherwise would have been put to sleep or ended their lives in vivisection laboratories.

Every year in Britain alone some two million cats and dogs are painlessly destroyed by animal welfare societies and veterinary surgeons. In order to try and combat this vast surplus the BUAV has founded what it calls its A.B.C. (Animal Birth Control) Scheme. This advocates the spaying and neutering of domestic pets, and where owners are unable to meet the veterinary charges involved the BUAV has been giving financial assistance.

In addition an intensive campaign has been conducted against pet stealing, which is rampant in many parts of the country, and as a result of these investigations arrests and convictions have been obtained. All this work is kept up by voluntary contributions. There is so much more we can do but not without your help in giving us the financial assistance we require.

PLEASE GIVE, GIVE GENEROUSLY to the BUAV ANIMAL AID

Bequests and legacies are urgently needed

Owing to the need for expansion in many fields including Arthritis, Blindness, Cancer, Cerebral and Coronary Thrombosis and Organ Transplantation it becomes ever more costly. Besides research, the College is responsible for training the next generation of surgeons in the most advanced techniques. Funds are urgently required. Your gift, covenant or legacy will speed the advance of Surgery.

Gifts and enquiries should be addressed to: Mr. W. F. Davis, Appeal Secretary, Royal College of Surgeons of England, Lincoln's Inn Fields, London, W.C.2. Tel: 01-405 3474

THE MENTAL AFTER CARE ASSOCIATION

(Established 1879)

For nearly 90 years this Association has provided Homes for the care of those recovering from mental illness. It has helped over 100,000 patients in its compassionate work to restore them to their families and the community.

Many more Homes are needed. The Association, being voluntary and independent, relies upon legacies and donations to make their provision possible.

BY WILL OR CODICIL OR COVENANT

MAY WE SUGGEST to Legal or Financial Advisers that when questions of their clients' benefactions arise the worthiness of The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund may be wholeheartedly and deservedly commended.

The Royal Air Force Benevolent Fund has for its object the relief of 'distress' actual or potential amongst past and present members of all ranks of the Royal Air Force, Royal Auxiliary Air Force, Royal Air Force Reserves and the Women's Royal Air Force. It assists the widows and dependants of those who lose their lives and helps with such vital issues as housing and children's education. It gives practical assistance to those suffering on account of sickness and general distress.

The need for help in nowise lessens in peace or war. Our immeasurable gratitude to that "Immortal Few" can hardly cease while memory itself endures.

THE ROYAL AIR FORCE
BENEVOLENT FUND

The Ada Cole Memorial Stables

Will you please help us to carry on our much needed work for the welfare of horses? We purchase those which by reason of old age, infirmity or previous ill-treatment are in need of care and attention; we also endeavour to provide suitable homes for those horses fit enough to do a little light work, under the supervision of the Society, and for all this, funds are urgently needed. Donations to the Secretary at office.

Stables: Broadlands, Broadley Common, Nr. Nazeing, Essex

THE FORCES HELP SOCIETY and LORD ROBERTS WORKSHOPS

(Registered under the National Assistance Act, 1948, and Charities Act, 1960)

Serving and ex-Service men and women need help in many ways—special training for the disabled, aid in sickness, a helping hand in domestic difficulties. Seven Lord Roberts Workshops and special Clinics have been established for the Disabled Ex-Service man. Homes for the Elderly and for Convalescents are maintained. There is a need to extend them to cope with long waiting lists.

The Forces Help Society and Lord Roberts Workshops relies on Voluntary Funds to carry on the vital work it has been doing for over 68 years.

A Deed of Gratitude

A legacy for the Methodist Homes for the Aged is a means many generous people adopt in expressing gratitude for their own home, and for serenity and peace-of-mind in their old age. Our constantly growing income from legacies, more than any other factor, has enabled us to embark on the capital expenditure for twenty-eight Homes. Unfortunately even these will accommodate only a few of the hundreds of deserving people on the tragically long waiting list. We thankfully acknowledge this valuable assistance and ask you please to remember the Methodist Homes for the Aged when advising your clients.

THE FERN STREET SETTLEMENT

Founder: CLARA E. GRANT, O.B.E.

Fern Street Settlement was founded in 1907 in continuation of a personal effort begun in 1900 on behalf of a school in which the then Warden (the late Clara E. Grant) was headmistress.

The activities aim at meeting the needs of the individual or small group in such a way as to complement the work of the Statutory Authorities. They include the provision of club facilities, home visiting, coach excursions and material help for all retired and needy persons within the Bow Common Area.

Jumble sales are held regularly and the Settlement is well known for its famous Farthing Bundles which contain children's toys.

The Settlement is dependent upon voluntary contributions and gifts of any kind, Donations, Legacies, Subscriptions, etc., will be gratefully received.

Booklets describing these activities will be sent on request.

Management by Executive Council, Committee and Warden.

Although the Methodist Ministers Housing Society now owns over two hundred dwellings, it needs six hundred to achieve its aim to provide accommodation for all retired Methodist Ministers at rents they can afford.

The Society relies to a considerable extent on generous assistance from legacies. Please bring the needs of this Society to the attention of your clients. Many more houses, flats and bungalows are required to meet the demand. Gifts of property and money by legacy are most appreciated.

Please write to the Treasurer, Rev. A. Kingsley Lloyd, or to the Secretary, S. E. Weaver, F.C.A., Methodist Ministers Housing Society, 1 Central Buildings, Westminster, London, S.W.1

Royal Normal College for the Blind

(formerly at Upper Norwood, S.E.19)

Albrighton Hall, Broad Oak
Shrewsbury and Rowton Castle
Near Shrewsbury

THE College provides education and vocational training in music, piano tuning and shorthand-typewriting for one hundred and sixty boys and girls, the majority of whom become self-supporting citizens. It thus makes a definite contribution to national economy in effecting the complete rehabilitation of many disabled persons.

Voluntary effort was responsible for the foundation of the College and has continued to play an important part in its life. The College has used its own funds freely for the welfare of blind persons, and the replenishment of these funds is necessary to enable it to continue to help its students in ways additional to those provided by Public Authorities, and to maintain the speed and flexibility of action which are advantages of a voluntary service.

Persons considering suitable objects for charitable bequests are begged to apply to the Secretary for full particulars.

LONDON ASSOCIATION FOR THE BLIND

(Founded 1857)

Patron: H.R.H. PRINCESS ALEXANDRA,
the Hon. Mrs. Angus Ogilvy, G.C.V.O.

We are a National Charity and have helped blind people throughout the British Isles for over a hundred years.

So that we may continue to care for the elderly, train and employ others and provide annuities for those in need, we would be most grateful if you would help the work of this charity by recommending it to clients who seek your advice on the disposition of Charitable Bequests.

(Registered in accordance with the National Assistance Act, 1948 and as a National Charity under the Charities Act, 1960)

THE HARRISON HOMES (Founded in 1869) CENTENARY APPEAL

This Charity is largely dependent on voluntary contributions. Homes are provided for needy Residents who each have a separate room which they personally furnish. They thus retain links with their past, and enjoy complete independence. Plans are in hand to provide 25 more rooms making a total of 170. When unable to care for themselves they are looked after in our own Rest Home which has accommodation for 20. Funds are urgently needed for the proposed expansion and to meet ever mounting general costs.

Further particulars may be obtained from:—

The Secretary,

NEW VOLUME — LOCAL GOVERNMENT LIBRARY

Encyclopedia of PUBLIC HEALTH Law and Practice

General Editor: C. A. CROSS, M.A., LL.B.

Consultant Editor: J. F. GARNER, LL.D.

ENVIRONMENTAL HEALTH AND HYGIENE

Public health law is now regarded as being primarily concerned with environmental hygiene and health and this new ENCYCLOPEDIA has been designed to meet the demand for a comprehensive and authoritative yet modern and manageable reference tool in this field. The entire traditional area of public health law has been critically reconsidered in deciding the scope of this new, two volume, loose-leaf ENCYCLOPEDIA, and the contents pay particular regard to the work and problems which fall upon Public Health Departments and Engineering and Surveying Departments today.

THE CASES: A COMPLETE REAPPRAISAL

The key feature of the work is that a whole body of judicial decisions stretching over a century and a half has been carefully re-examined and many cases which have lost relevance because of changed living standards have been excised. In addition, a number of cases have been found to be so related to particular facts that no useful principle emerges: these have either been omitted or specially noted.

From the remaining cases an entirely new attempt has been made to set down certain broad provisions appearing from lines of development. Considerable assistance in this regard is given in the fields of statutory nuisance, statutory compensation and breach of statutory duty, to name only a few examples.

PART I—BASIC STATUTE LAW

The basic statutory provision is the Public Health Act 1936 and this forms PART I of the ENCYCLOPEDIA. This Act is fully annotated, section by section, and provided with complete cross-references to the material in the following PARTS of the ENCYCLOPEDIA. As an introduction to PART I, two particular topics are examined; first, the relevance of the law of sewers and drains to the private landowner; and, secondly, the very difficult subject of "statutory" easements. This is a topic of particular importance, for the administration of compensation provisions must depend on rights acquired by the local authority or statutory undertaker, and here particularly the cases do not present a clear picture.

PART II—OTHER STATUTE LAW

For PART II of the ENCYCLOPEDIA, detailed research has been made to find every statute which is currently relevant to environmental health, and these are presented, again annotated in detail, and fully cross-referenced both to the main Act and to the other material in the work.

The Acts printed begin with the "Public Health Act 1875" (Support of Sewers) Amendment Act 1883 and end with the "Civic Amenities Act 1967".

PART III—RULES AND ORDERS

PART III of the new ENCYCLOPEDIA contains a full verbatim printing of every Rule, Order and Statutory Instrument made in implementation of the environmental health legislation which is printed in PARTS I and II. Illustrations, charts and diagrams are accurately reproduced and a particular feature of the ENCYCLOPEDIA is that PART III contains the entire Building Regulations 1965, as amended, fully cross-referenced to all other material in the work. The regulations printed begin with the Canal Boat Regulations 1878 which remain in force, and end with S.I. No. 1968/431, Clean Air (Measurement of Grit and Dust) Regulations 1968.

PART IV—CIRCULARS

PART IV contains all those Circulars of various ministries which are relevant to the statutory provisions in the first two PARTS. There is much useful information in this material as to departmental policy and the practical administration of the law.

INDEXES

A complete Index to the entire work appears in each Volume and indexing throughout is done not only by headings but also by the substance of the material appearing on each page. References are to individual paragraphs which are numbered throughout the text. Instant access is therefore ensured to all the information in the field of environmental hygiene, a large and diffuse area of law which has been entirely reappraised to produce the compact, practical and modern restatement which this work represents.

A MOST WORTHY CAUSE

The HOMES OF ST. BARNABAS provide in lovely country a really happy and secure old age to some 40 retired Anglican Clergy. Each has his comfortable quarters and full use of the fine library and common rooms. There are two Chapels where those who are able conduct the Services. There is an infirmary wing under a S.R.N.

Each resident pays what he can but that is insufficient. Please help to fill the gap by:

LEGACY • COVENANT • DONATION
